Dear George,

Thank you again for your kind reception and please accept our apologies for not having been able to announce our visit.

It's always a great pleasure to be in the cordial and warm atmosphere of the GSO. Please extend our thanks to everyone who helped us and made our visit so pleasant.

We have taken due note of your offer to keep us informed of developments on this matter. Thank you for offering to send us copy of all concerning documents.

We will be waiting with great expectation the communication announced in your letter delivered to us and dated August 9. We do hope that together we might avoid a shameful public confrontation derived from a criminal legal process between brothers.

Following please find and extract of the main points of our conversation. We hope to have made a faithful synthesis. If not, please let us know and we will certainly correct any misinterpretations in which we might have undeliberately occur.

We learned from you that A.A. World Services, Inc. was not aware of any criminal legal process versus the Junta de Servicios Generales. The term legal action meant to World Services legal copy right protection only. Also you did not have intentions of criminal pursuance.

We learned from you that in accordance with the Conference Charter, A.A. World Services policy is to have one literature publisher per country. Since you have already authorized Central Mexicana, you do not advise or accept that other Service Structure print and distributes A.A. literature.

We informed you that the legal criminal process already launched against the Junta de Servicios Generales means prosecution by law and therefore there is no legal withdraw or withhold from the part of the complainant. This also means that the Junta de Servicios Generales will have to defend itself by all means within its reach.

We informed you that given the circumstances described above, the only way no to harm thousands of members affiliated to the Conferencia Seccion Mexico, the only way not to harm service structures and to protect the liberty and integrity of personae as well as to avoid public confrontation is to agree to the petition of the Junta de Servicios Generales, to permit the use of symbols and literature within the Service universal standards. All this in the benefit of Alcoholics Anonymous and the suffering Alcoholics.

Is in the sense if this last paragraph that the Junta has asked your prompt and determined intervention. The petition makes more sense since the Junta de Servicios Generales, according to the Conference Charter, is a well-organized Service Structure, based on the Service Manual principles, on the A.A. Traditions, on the 12 Concepts for World Service and the Conference structure organigram.

We insisted that the criminal process launched by Central Mexicana will lead us all to a public confrontation that nobody wants and that only World Services Inc. can stop this aberrant initiative since Thomas K. Jasper letter served as foundation (Without his knowledge, we are sure) for Central Mexicana's denunciation.

Full of hope and optimism, we are glad to transmit you offer to mediate between Junta de Servicios Generales and Central Mexicana. Thank you. We reiterate the Recommendation of the Conference Seccion Mexico position: The Conference Seccion Mexico continues to be willing and open to dialog between Delegates of both service structures. (Proof of it is the documents joined that we mentioned during our interview.)
