Dear Bob,

Your recent mailing arrived the day after my leaving for a fishing trip and thus my late responses.

Thank you for keeping me posted and please, if there are those who forget to be civil in discussion, do not feel too bad – after all, they who do so much live with that ?????? and you do not.

Your trip to Mexico sounds exciting; it is always good to exchange and share with our friends in sobriety. We need to do this more frequently even here at home, and certainly more on our international level.

Please know your correspondence will be read, reviewed, discussed and answered. The process does work.

Very Truly Yours,
Jim Estelle
