COPIA

Dear George,

Thank you again for your kind reception and please accept our apologies for not having been able to announce our visit.

It's always a great pleasure to be in the cordial and warm atmosphere of the GSO. Please extend our thanks to everyone who helped us and made our visit so pleasant.

We have taken due note of your offer to keep us informed of the developments on this matter. Thank you for offering to send us copy of all concerning documents.

We will be waiting with great expectation the communication announce in your letter delivered to us dated August 9. We do hope that together we might avoid a shameful public confrontation derived from the criminal legal process between brothers.

Following please find extract of the main points of our conversation. We hope to have made a faithful synthesis. If not please let us know and we will certainly correct any misinterpretations in which we might have undeliberately occur.

We learned from you that A.A. World Services, Inc. was not aware of any criminal legal process verses the Junta de Servicios Generales. The term legal action meant to the World Services legal copy rights protection only. Also you did not have any intentions of criminal pursuance.

We learned from you that in accordance with the Conference Charter, A.A. World Services Policy is to have one literature publisher per country. Since you have already authorized Central Mexicana, you do not advise to accept that other Service Structure print and distributes A.A. literature.
