Dear Delegate,

The IWS Group realizes that our approach to carrying the message has been controversial to some. In the interests of unity and eliminating controversy we want to answer any concerns you may have about our group.

We have just published our new book THE STUDY EDITION and realize that many of you have not seen our MINI EDITION of the BIG BOOK. In order that you may fully investigate our group and books we are including with this letter, our books, Statement of Purpose, and answers to questions we have been asked. We hope they will help you better understand us.

Realizing we are, of course, biased about IWS, we are also enclosing a file of the correspondence between our group and the New York Offices. Our Group Conscience held that this was the best way to be fully open about the matters addressed.

If you have any more questions or want more information we hope you will contact us.

Yours in love and service,

/s/
