Dear Ms. Leona T.:

Thank you for your letter of April 6, 1994.

In your letter of November 25, 1992 to our attorneys, you said, "The next printing of the BIG BOOK done by this organization will have a red cover, have no references to the A.A.W.S. name and trademarks, and the publisher will be I.W.S., Inc." Our attorney's response on December 3, 1992 pointed out that ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS was a registered trademark held by A.A.W.S. We were gratified when your next printing did not utilize any of our registered marks, and when we referred to "your prior consent" in our letter of March 25, 1994, we had in mind the above-quoted correspondence.

In our letter of March 25, we asked that you discontinue the use of the name ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS as the title of your mini-edition and we also asked that you delete the recitation "The gray areas are not Alcoholics Anonymous General Service Conference-approved." We now repeat the same request in relation to your "Study Edition," of which we were unaware when we wrote to you on March 25. We would appreciate your prompt assurance that you will comply with these requests with respect to the mini-edition and the Study Edition.

Turning to the subject of sales in Canada, your April 6 letter stated that "we intend for all sales to originate in the United States." Again, we remind you that sales of your publication of the book ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS In Canada is an infringement of our Canadian copyright, whether the sale originates in the U.S. or elsewhere. Here, too, we would appreciate your assurance that such sales will not be made in Canada.

Sincerely,
/s=George Dorsey/
