Dear Leona T.

We wrote to you on August 8, 1994 regarding sales of your mini-edition and study edition of the book ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS in Canada, and the use of the name ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS on the cover of the books.

Since our letter of August 8, we have learned that you published a mini-edition of our Spanish translation of the book ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS. Our Spanish translation of ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS is copyrighted in the United States as well as around the world. Your publication of the book is an infringement of our copyright. We must, therefore, request that you discontinue further publication and distribution of our Spanish translation of ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS. Please let us have your written assurance that you will comply with this request.

The issues raised in our August 8, 1994 letter need to be resolved. Please let us have your response to that letter without further delay.

Sincerely,
/s= George/
